

Name _____

Shooting Hoops

When we make inferences, we use the words in the text as well as what we already know.
Find examples in Shooting Hoops where you were able to add your own knowledge to infer meaning.

The text says ...	I know ...	I infer ...
Le Bron slam dunks the ball for the third time in ten minutes.	I know that's a very hard thing to do.	He's a great player.

S Making inferences