Grandpa won a red ribbon for his pumpkin, even though there was a drought.

She made tomato soup as well.

Grandpa collected water from the neighbours and from others in the neighbourhood.

The pumpkin was loaded into the car from the wheelbarrow.

The notice about the garden show was in the supermarket window.

Mum used the prize pumpkin to make some soup.

Mum heard the news about the drought on the television.

Grandpa collected used water from his family to put on his pumpkin plant.
