

Name _____

Always On

A concept web is a useful way of organizing research and presenting information about a topic. The topic is written in the middle of the page, in this case “Digital Tools.” The subjects (names of digital tools) branch out from this and smaller branches explain details about the tools.

Complete the concept web below, using the information from the text.

 Comparing and contrasting