

Non-Fiction

Milky Way

by Paul Mason

When we summarise a non-fiction book, we retell what the main ideas are and what the details that support those ideas are. However, when we read a non-fiction book, the things that we often remember and want to tell others about are the amazing facts that we've learned. Write three amazing facts that you learned from Milky Way below.

I didn't know that...

It is amazing that...

I was interested to learn that...
